"Mary-Ellen O'Keefe's Word-Speaking Diet is a tender work of Tom Neely's heart. He wrote this story to help his daughter through those uncomfortable burps and gulps of childhood. All of us, regardless of age, can look back and recall those rough moments of adjusting, those momentary blips where our personality blurred and we forgot who we are.

The story of Mary-Ellen O'Keefe's Word-Speaking Diet reminds me both of myself and one of my children in grade school. I was a painfully shy child and it was very difficult for me to open up and let others get to know me. I have a child who has gone through bouts of this as well.

Mary-Ellen O'Keefe is a smart and happy little girl who loves to talk, sing, ask questions, and generally speak her mind. That is, until her first day of school where the unfamiliarity of a new and different environment makes her nervous and shy and causes her to go on an unexpected and very unusual "Word-Speaking Diet". "This is strange!
